D. LUTHER’S LECTURES ON MALACHI- Vol. 18, Page 408

“Behold, I will send My messenger. The people are tired. The preacher, the prophet, is tired. They say: “Wait. Wait again, etc. No matter how much we serve the Lord, yet the Gentiles have it better than we.” But He says: “Have confidence. Behold, your salvation is now at the door and that kingdom will be changed. Your murmurings and the complaints of the prophets will cease, who believe that they are preaching in vain. The righteous will be separated from the wicked, and the wicked will no longer be more powerful, more fortunate.” But He is saying all this in a spiritual sense and especially in regard to His teaching and accomplishment.

Where the pure Gospel is, there Christ rules. There are excluded the heretics, the antichrists, the wicked, the hypocrites, those who remain in sin and death. In the old synagog there were more wicked teachers than good ones. Two men who teach contrary doctrines cannot stay at the same time. The people want one true and steadfast teacher whom they can trust. Here the Lord promises one who would give his hearers a sound and secure mind in all their tribulations. He says, “I will send you the genuine Malachi, that is, a messenger, who is John the Baptist.”
